

APOLLO RV PAYS TOURISTS TO TAKE A HOLIDAY

In one of the largest relocation drives in the history of its operations, Apollo RV will allow tourists to collect 250 brand new RVs during April, May and June from the manufacturing facility at Indiana, and then take them on their inaugural journey of up to two weeks before delivering them to depots in the tourist destinations of Denver, San Francisco, Las Vegas or Los Angeles.

Apollo will pay drivers $200 towards fuel and relocation costs, and charge just $1 per day of hire. Drivers will be responsible for insurance costs.

Apollo RV CEO Luke Trouchet said the $12.5 million shipment of recreational vehicles purchased from the Fleetwood RV Inc Headquarters & Manufacturing Plant was an exciting investment into Indiana's local economy, with the next big shipment of vehicles scheduled for 2013.

"We're proud to see our growing fleet travelling through America," said Mr Trouchet, whose family-owned business has been operating since 1985.

"The great American road trip is a fantastic tradition, and a wonderful, affordable holiday," he said.

Vehicles available through the factory relocation special can be booked for pick up on April 2nd and 3rd, May 1st and 2nd and June 4th and 5th exclusively online at
